

Winners Announced for SWOSU YouTube Contest

04.03.2009

Elizabeth Austin is the winner of the second SWOSU YouTube video contest held recently at Southwestern Oklahoma State University.

Austin, a SWOSU student from Borger (TX), won $150. Her video as well as the top three winners and an honorable mention selection can be seen at: <http://www.youtube.com/user/swosu>.

Winning second place was Bigyan Koirala of Nepal who won $100. Third place was won by Burton House student workers Kelsey Hines of Hydro, Kayla Patrick of Wichita Falls (TX), Theresa Shaklee of Kremlin and Rachel van der Hagen of Broken Arrow. They won $50. Honorable mention winner was Emily Garrison of Weatherford.

"As people will see by the top videos, the judging was very difficult," said Baxter Stewart, student worker in the SWOSU Public Relations & Marketing Office. "We were really excited about the entries and look forward to more contests this fall."
